REVIEW: Arbonne SeaSource Detox Spa Purifying Sea Soak

I posted a written review for this on my Beauty By Charlie Facebook page and got a message asking "was it really that good for that price?" Well.. Yes for me it was! It's not something I'd spend the money on to use every day but it's definitely something I'd keep in the cupboard for those special days when I'm feeling over worked. It's great for people who have had surgeries that are achy or sore.
